

OIFN Book Club Meeting

In Guelph (and on-line) February 22, 2018 at 12 noon

Facilitation Wellington Dufferin is proud to be part of the Ontario Independent Facilitation Network (OIFN), and one of the ways that we contribute to the network is by hosting semi-regular book club meetings.

This casual club offers a chance to come together to share ideas and conversation with people about books that spark our interest. It doesn't require any long-term commitment, and is open to anyone who would like to attend.

Our chosen book for February is:

A Hidden Wholeness: The Journey Toward an Undivided Life by: Parker Palmer

About the Book: In A Hidden Wholeness, Parker Palmer speaks to our yearning to live undivided lives—lives that are congruent with our inner truth—in a world filled with the forces of fragmentation. Mapping an inner journey that we take in solitude and in the company of others, Palmer describes a form of community that fits the limits of our active lives. Defining a “circle of trust” as “a space between us that honors the soul,” he shows how people in settings ranging from friendship to organizational life can support each other on the journey toward living “divided no more.”

Location: Einstein's Café, 2 Grant Street, Guelph

<http://einsteinscafe.net/Home.aspx>

If you would like to join in the conversation in person, please RSVP to Joanna@facilitationwd.com so that we can make accurate reservations.

You can also join in our on-line book club conversations on Facebook at:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1653162541383633/?fref=nf>

